

Announcing NCEBC 2016 Convention Leadership Academy

On Wednesday, April 20, 2016, 8:00am -4:00pm the National Council on Educating Black Children (NCEBC) and participating National Urban Superintendents and School Administrators will convene:

“COURAGEOUS, COMPETENT, CLEAR AND RESILIENT: A FORMULA FOR SUCCESS! ”

@

The Baltimore Hilton, Baltimore Maryland

The goal of the Academy is to provide educators aspiring to become urban school principals and superintendents an overview of the positions that will prepare committed educators to undertake systemic development of urban schools and school districts. In the day long training aspiring leaders, will be engaged in teaching and learning strategies that accelerate students achievement, using data in real time to make strategic instructional decisions, enhancing superintendent and school board relationships, and expanding the capacity of teachers and administrators to collaborate effectively with all stakeholders.

Featured presenters and topics include:

- Dr. Betty Rosa, New York State Board of Regents, 12th Judicial District, Bronx, New York. “Leadership: Administration in an Urban School District”
- Dr. Charles Coleman, Superintendent, Joliet, Illinois, “Leadership : The Role and Challenges of the Administrator: Site, District & Superintendent”
- Mr. Nathaniel Jones, Superintendent, MSD Pike Township School District, Indianapolis, Indiana. “Human Relations: Shared Decision Making, Team Building, Establishing and Sustaining an Effective District, Board, Community, Political and Statewide Relationships”
- Dr. Shawn Smith, Superintendent, MSD Lawrence Township School District, Indianapolis, Indiana, “Landing the Job: Interviewing skills, Negotiating the Superintendent Contract”
- Dr. Rolf Grafwallner, Assistant Superintendent, Maryland State Department of Education, “Accountability, Accountability: Financial responsibility, Negotiations/Collective Bargaining.”

For Registration information contact NCEBC: www.ncebc.org or by calling 317-283-9081 or ncebc@sbcglobal.net.